

AYSA Notch Account Instructions

1. Click "Create Account" from the referee invite email.
2. Follow all instructions and fill out required information.
3. If you are a USSF referee and get to this box pictured below, select Yes, USSF and then enter your USSF ID Number. If you do not know your USSF ID number, you can login to your US Learning Center Account and it will be listed under your profile.
4. Feel free to also download the Notch Sports app in the app store.

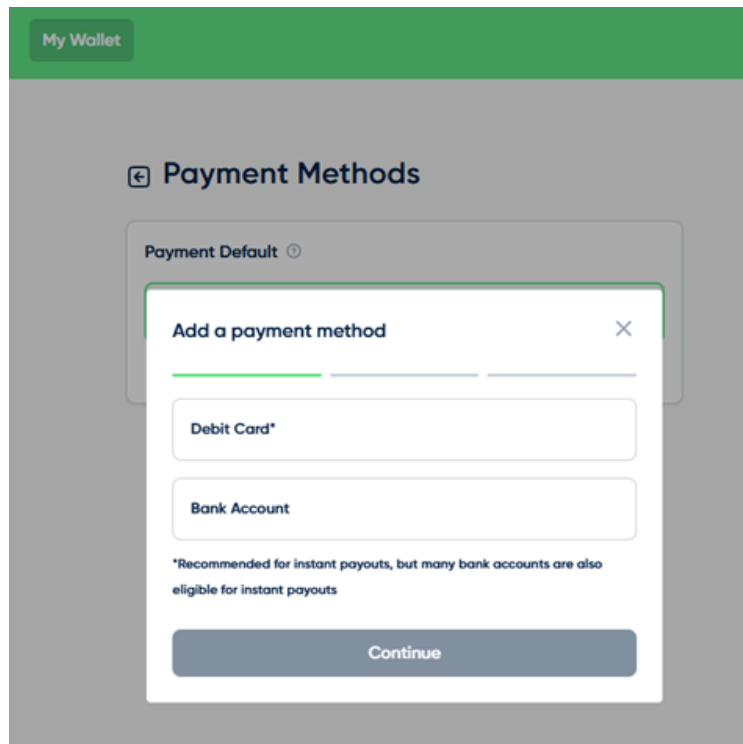

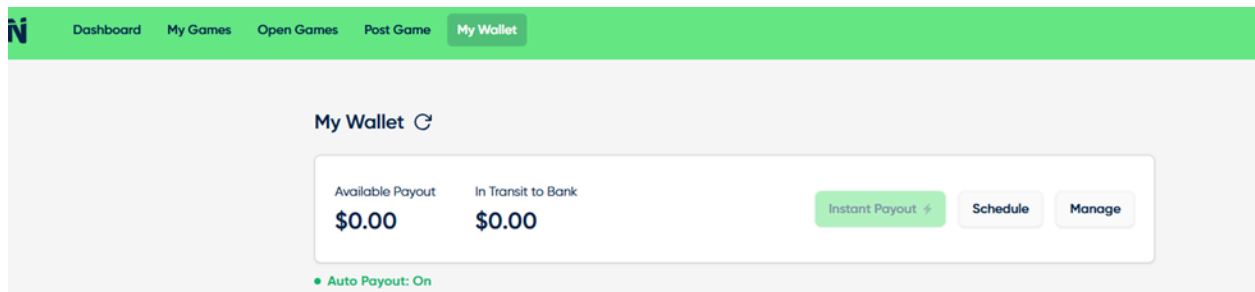

The screenshot shows a mobile application interface for creating a Notch account. At the top, the word "NOTCH" is displayed in a large, bold, green font. Below the logo, the text "Enter more details on your experience as an official." is centered. The main question is "Have you obtained a formal certification from a sport's governing body or organized authority?". A dropdown menu below this question is set to "Yes". Below the dropdown, a note states: "The details you enter here will help your assignor verify your certification status." The next question is "Under which governing body did you obtain a certification?". A dropdown menu below this question is set to "United States Soccer Federation (USSF)". Below the dropdown, there is a label "Enter USSF ID" with an information icon. A text input field below this label contains the placeholder text "Enter I.D. Registration". At the bottom of the form is a large green button labeled "Next".

Linking Checking Account

1. Login to your Notch Account.
2. Select the “My Wallet” tab at the top of the page.
3. Select “Manage” and then add a new payment method.
4. If you select “Bank Account”, provide your routing number and account number.

Checking accounts will only be accepted and savings accounts will not work for pay out.
